Policy Notification Statement

All courses are open to all students regardless of sex. It is the policy of the New York City Board of Education not to discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs, activities or employment policies as required by Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

Dear Graduates:

Now that the moment of your graduation approaches, you are probably both eager to receive your diplomas and melancholy, too, at the prospect of leaving our school and your classmates.

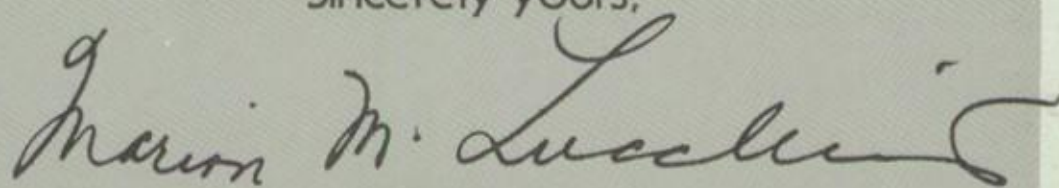

As you take one more long and lingering look about, try to remember all of the good things that happened to you at Maxwell where you received a sound and up to date vocational and academic education; where you were encouraged to develop appropriate civic and social attitudes and responsibilities; and, where you were given every opportunity to build up a vast store of experiences, memories, and friendships.

Graduation is a very special occasion that brings to a close one chapter in your life as it opens another to the future. Whatever road you choose to follow, be it college, career, or marriage, you must continue to aim high to strive harder; you must always do your best.

We are very proud of you and your accomplishments; and, we thank you for adding another bright chapter to the best traditions of Maxwell.

May good fortune and happiness be yours in the years to come.

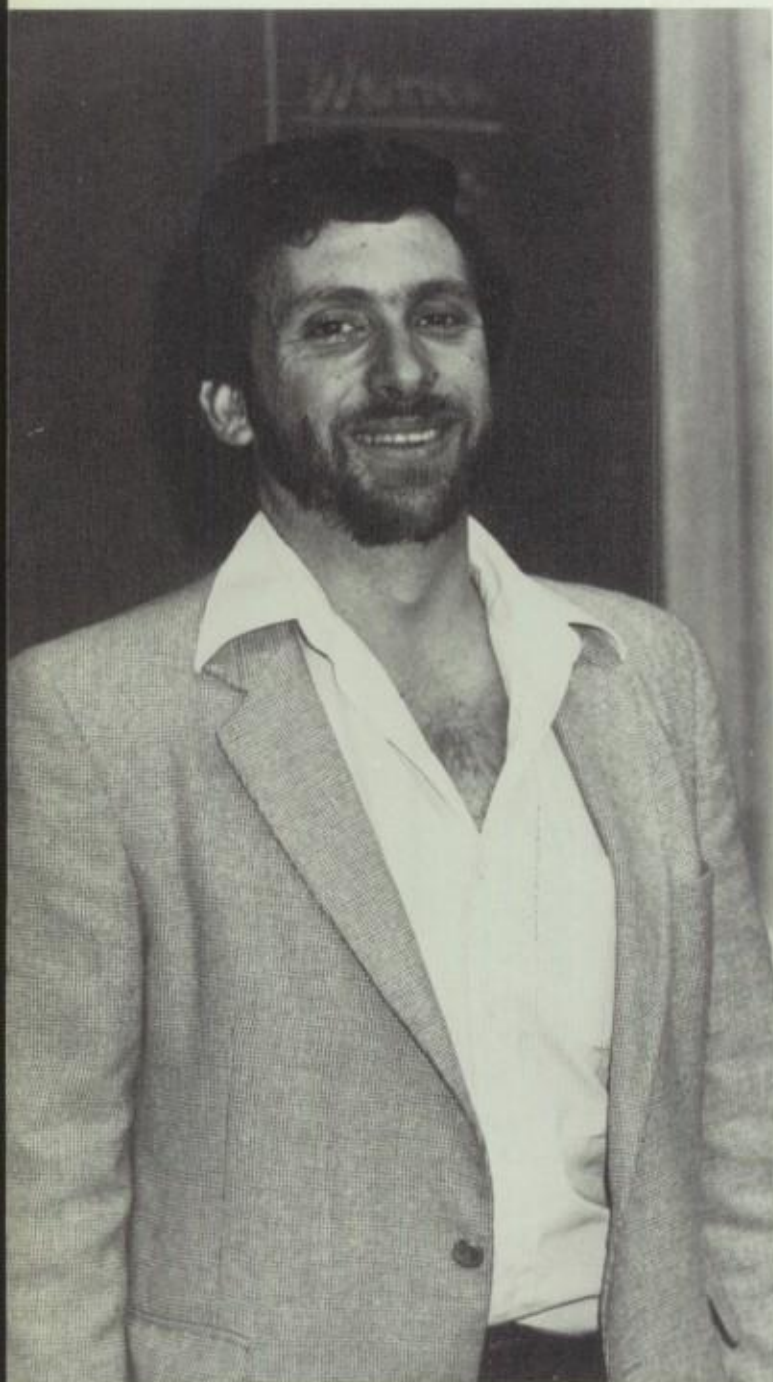

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Marion M. Lucchino". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.

Marion M. Lucchino
Principal

We Proudly Dedicate Our Yearbook to Mr. Sam Cohen

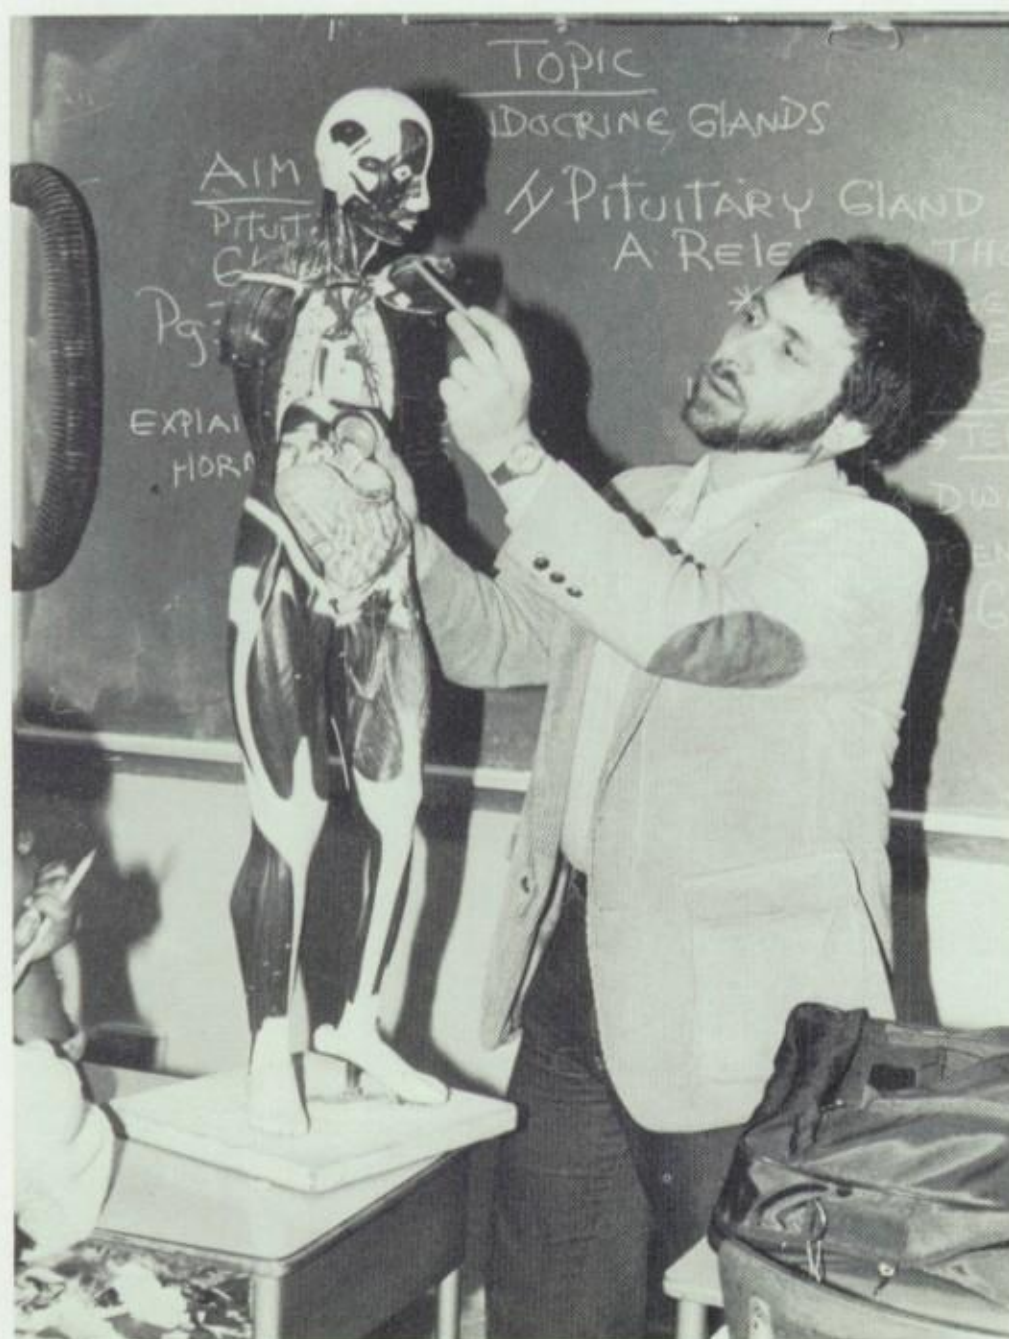

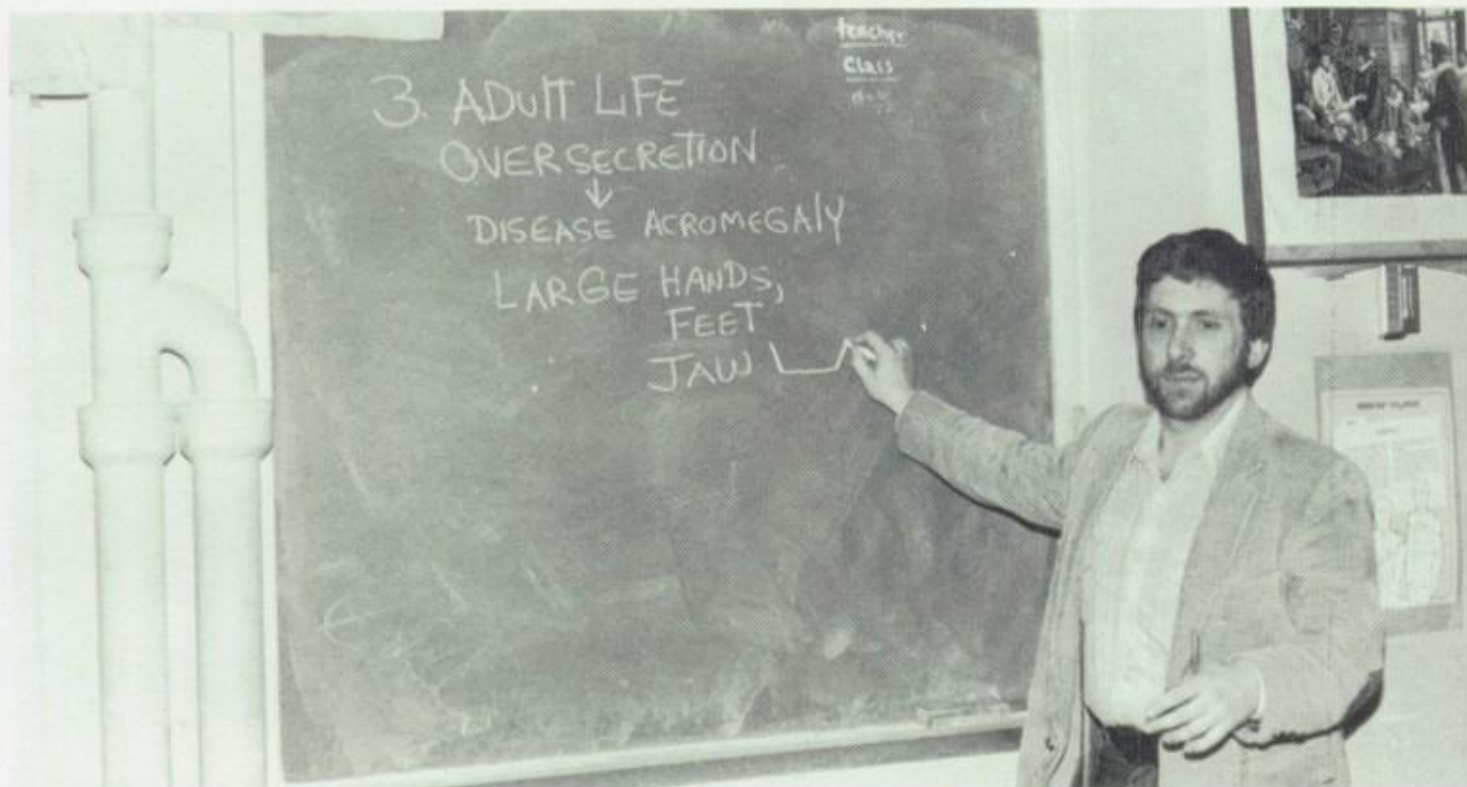

Mr. Cohen came to Maxwell as a laboratory assistant in 1965, and began his teaching career in biology one year later. Since his arrival at Maxwell, Mr. Cohen has held various positions such as Audio-Visual Coordinator, Yearbook Advisor, and at present is the school's assistant to the Assistant Principal of Administration.

He graduated from Long Island University, in Brooklyn, in 1964 with a B.S. in Biology. After completing his education courses at Hunter College, he went on to receive his Masters Degree in Biology and Education from that school. Mr. Cohen finally received a second Masters in Supervision and Administration from Pace University in 1975.

Mr. Cohen is married with two daughters. His wife, Rosalie, works in the library of a Junior High School on Long Island where they live. His older daughter, Jodi, attends Junior High School, and his younger daughter, Nadine, is in the 5th grade in an elementary school.

Mr. Cohen feels that all students must be challenged in the classroom. He feels that this will prepare them for the many obstacles that they may encounter in their future lives after they leave the sheltered halls of Maxwell. He would like to leave the graduating class of '83' the following message. "Keep in mind that your graduation from high school is not an end, but a beginning. Use what you have learned here as a platform from which you can reach for the stars. I sincerely wish you all of the best of luck and happiness in what I hope will be a very fulfilling and successful life."

Being a member of a club, a squad, or service organization is part of a proud Maxwell tradition. To a Maxwelite, taking part in a school activity is more than just having a good time. It is something more, much more. Becoming involved means you are part of the Maxwell family tradition. A tradition rich in brotherhood, service and integrity.

Seniors

The Senior class of 1983 is determined to keep the "Maxwell Light" coming through. We have developed understanding and improved our skills. The time has come for us to leave, and Maxwell has prepared us for the life ahead.

Patiently and willingly we've waited for this day.

Determination has paid off and we have found our way.

*To a higher level, we have progressed
at last.*

We're leaving childhood behind, and high school in our past.

Now we're advancing — what a joy!

We are no longer girl and boy,

But young adults who now take aim,

And work to reach the hall of fame.

So, sad to say it's time to tell,

Goodbye to those we've known so well.

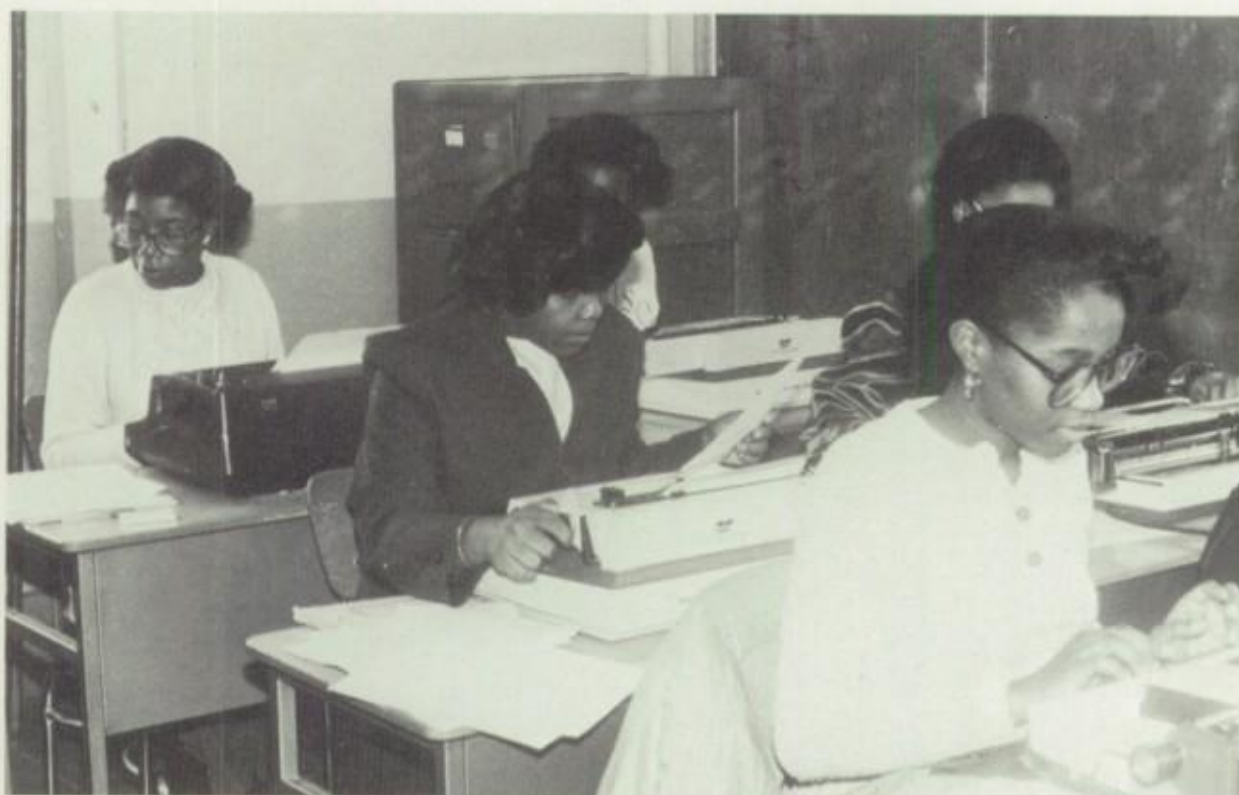

It's time to work, farewell to play,

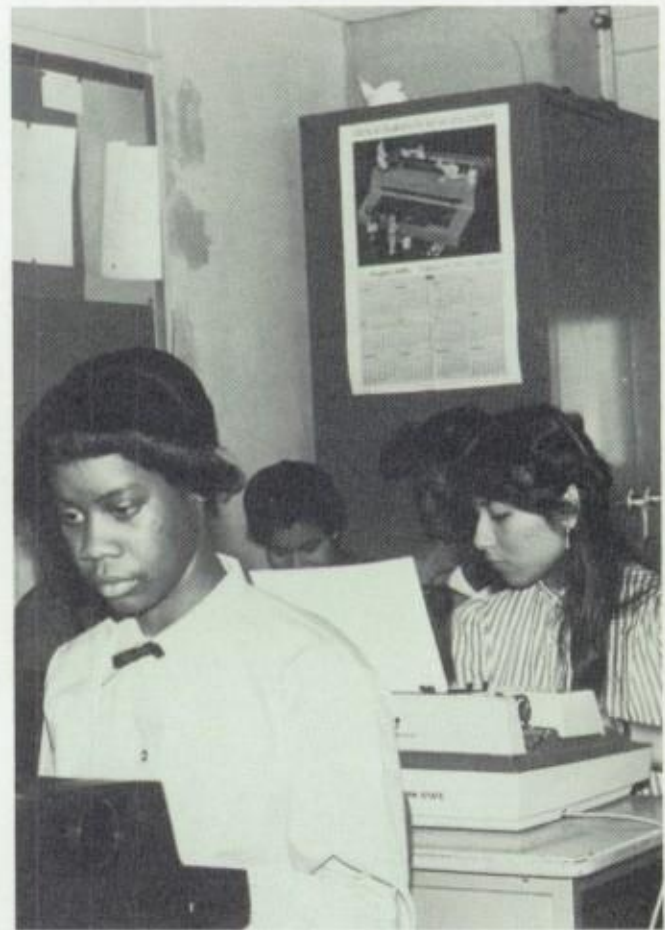

So long Maxwell — We're On Our Way!

AS WE LEAVE IN SORROW,
OUR FRIENDS, OUR MEMORIES, OUR SCHOOL,
WE THINK, WE PAUSE, WE REFLECT.

AS WE BEGIN A NEW CHAPTER IN THE BOOK OF LIFE,
A NEW DAY, A NEW LIFE, A NEW WAY.
WE WONDER, WE HOPE, WE CARE,
HOW THOSE HOURS, THOSE DAYS, THOSE YEARS HAVE FLOWN BY.

IS TODAY REALLY THE BEGINNING OF A NEW LIFE,
OR IS IT JUST A CONTINUATION OF THE SAME?
AS I REFLECT ON MY YEARS PAST,
A SMILE COMES TO MY FACE,
AND A WARMTH TO MY HEART.

Thinking Ahead . . .

Sometimes I sit and think to me,
What my future is going to be.
I have the question in my mind,
But it's the answer I have to find.

Maybe I want fortune or fame,
Just so the world will know my name.
I know in whatever I plan to succeed,
A good education is what I'll need.

With an education I can believe,
My goals and aims will be achieved.
When my future begins I will plan,
To strive for it the best I can.

Robyn Pender

As we all spend in joy our senior year,
The memories of being freshmen, sophomores,
and juniors are held so near.

We've all come a long, long way knowing in our hearts we really don't want to say,
"Farewell dearest friends,
farewell Maxwell High.
Our memories of you will never die."

But as we know we've waited for graduation a long long time.
We can look back and say,
"The best of times were mine."

Now the future takes a step forward.
We know what we must do.
Remembering all the things you've taught us
and how we always made it through.

For soon we'll be on our way,
to different places and brighter days.
In hope for happier moments and better years
looking towards the future,
holding back our fear.

It will seem so different,
it will seem so strange.
As we look back at our Maxwell
years and notice the change.

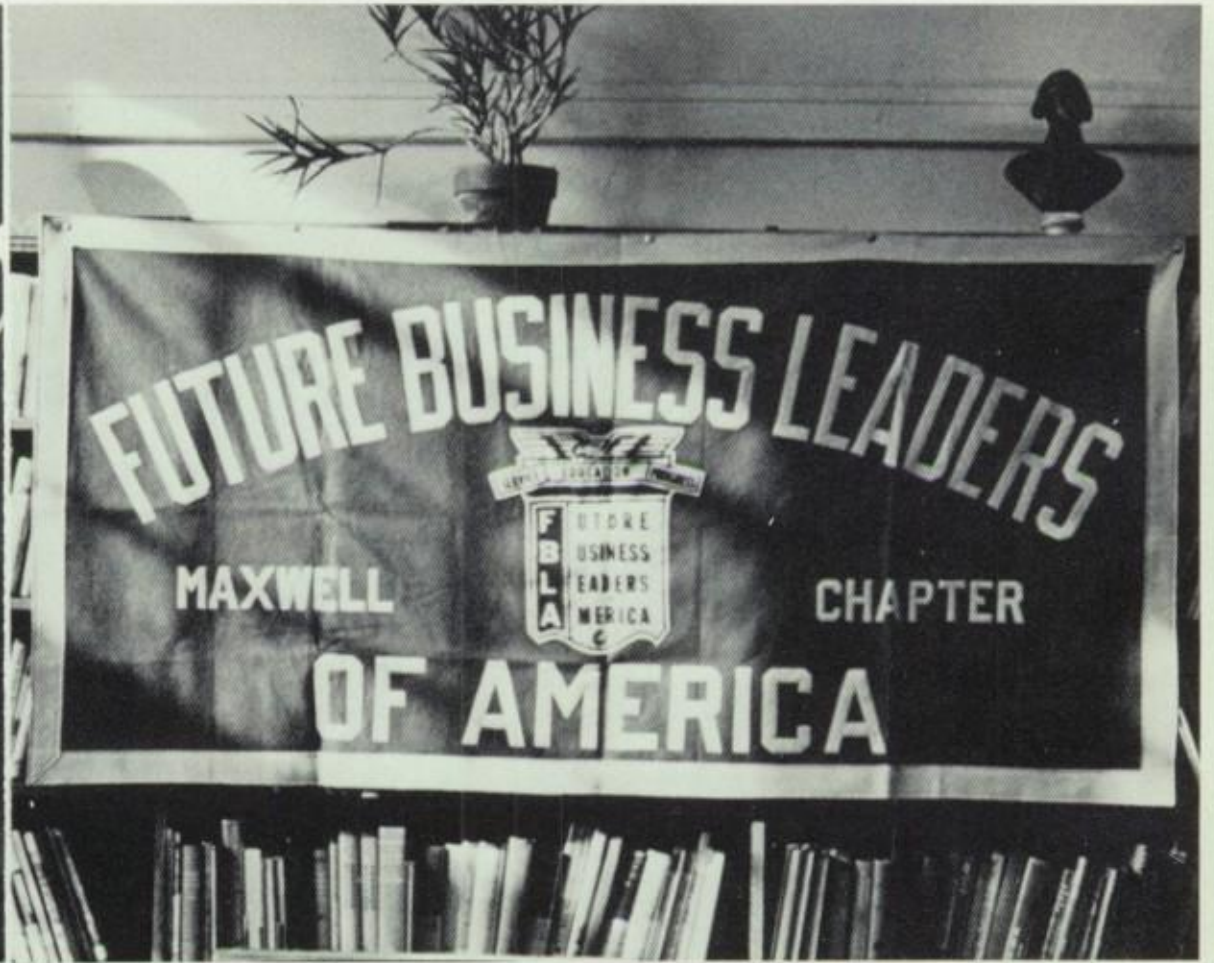

How we've all grown up in our
own special way,
but the future lies ahead
with new experiences each day.

Andrea Kitson

We all know graduation is near,
and time to say goodbye,
But most of us have certain fears,
that stay deep inside.
Our fears of the past have long since gone,
Our fears of the present are sliding on,
Our fears of the future lay ahead.

C. Martinez

And Looking Back.

Last Will And Testament

We the graduating Class of 1983, of Wm. H. Maxwell Vocational High School, of sound mind and body bequeath to those remaining in the school these priceless relics:

Miss Lucchino: The memories of Class of '83, preferably good ones, and the hope that the future graduates are as everlastingly impressed by Maxwell as we were.

Accounting Department: Our worn out rulers, pens, and pencils in hopes that future graduates will not leave them at home as we did.

Podiatry Department: The expectation your study of feet will be your first step on to the ladder of success.

Cosmetology Department: The relief that the Class of '83 is finally out of your hair, but we hope that future students are as ambitious as we were.

Fashion Arts Department: The hope that the scissor of success cuts out a perfect pattern for future graduates to follow.

Music Department: The band would like to leave an all expense paid trip to Carnegie Hall, to future choruses we leave a lifetime supply of throat lozenges. Lastly, the Orchestra would like to leave a supply of Easy Steps To the Orchestra Books.

Health Education Department: The hope that a Maxwellite will one day make it to the Olympics.

All Teachers: Our thanks. We couldn't have done it without you, but then again we've only just begun.

Signed, sealed, and executed in the year of our Lord, Nineteen hundred and eighty-three.
